

Friday, November 28. 1707.

From the Amst. and Leid. Gazette, dated Nov. 18.
Naples, Oct. 25.

TH E Duke of Castelluccia, of the House of Spinelli, arriv'd here last Week from the Court of Vienna, whither he retir'd in 1701 on Account of the Troubles here at that Time. 'Tis said he has brought Leave for Count Martiniz our Viceroy to return to Vienna, if the Air of this Country continue to be prejudicial to his Health. On Sunday last Te Deum was sung here, in Thanksgiving for the reduction of Gaeta, in the Presence of Cardinal Pignatelli our Archbishop, and of Count Martiniz, who finding himself pretty free from his Indisposition went abroad that Day the first Time. On Occasion of this Solemnity, at which all the Nobility, Generals, and superior Courts assisted, a treble Salvo of Artillery was made. The same Day a Letter from the Emperour was read, in Answer to one written by the City to desire the Empress Dowager might be sent to Govern this Kingdom; and 'tis hop'd that Request will be granted. Yesterday General Count Thaur went with a numerous Attendance to the Chappel of the Treasury, where he caus'd all the Colours and Standards taken from the Garrison of Gaeta to be hung up. In that Place were found 109 Pieces of Cannon, 10 Mortars, 450 Barrels of Musquet balls, 106000 Cannon Bullets, 5530 Grenadoes, 500 Bombs, and 2500 Barrels of Powder, with Provisions in Proportion, As also 400000 Crowns in Money. We begin to feel a Scarcity of Corn and other Provisions here, which is occasion'd by the Gallies and Privateers of Sicily and some French Capers, who interrupt our Commerce by Sea with Calabria and Apulia: And therefore the Means of Subduing that Island are under Deliberation. General Thaur has actually commanded his Officers to hold themselves ready to embark about the middle of next Month, for that Expedition; and a great Number of Tartans are already taken up, to transport the Troops that are to be employ'd in it. 'Tis said the Design is to go directly to Palermo.

From the Amst. and Leid. Gazette, dated Nov. 25.

Naples, Nov. 1. A Tartan arriv'd from Barcelona has brought General Count Thaur a Commission to exercise provisionally (till the arrival of the Empress Dowager) the Office of Viceroy, in the Room of Count Martiniz, who continuing to find his Health impair'd by the Air of this Climate, set out to Day for Rome, thence to proceed to the Court of Vienna. Notwithstanding all the Care taken of the Wounds of M. de Vanbonne, General of the Imperial Horse, he is dead of them, and is generally lamented. The Duke of Atri is at Ascoli, and intends to go from thence to Rome, having six Months time allow'd him to resolve whether to acknowledge King Charles or not. The Imperial Troops are gone into Winter Quarters, and very few remain here. Count Thaur has caus'd the Officers and Ministers taken in Gaeta to be carry'd to Pescara. Our Archbishop reclaim'd Don Gio Torres Secretary to the Duke of Escalona, alledging that he is a Priest; and on the Refusal made him, the Pope's Nuncio went in Person to Count Thaur to solicit his Enlargement: But his Excellency answer'd him, that he would deal with him as the D. of Escalona's Secretary; and that if he was what a Priest ought to be, he would never have concern'd in the Death of so many innocent People: And thereupon he is sent to Pescara. The Nuncio interceded likewise on Thursday last, for the Duke of Escalona, the Duke of Bisaccia, and the Prince of Cellamare, who are Prisoners in the Castle of St. Elmo; But he was answer'd, that they should be treated in the same manner as Don Joseph Capece and Don Charles de Sangro were in 1701. [They were beheaded.] The Fees of all the Lords of this Kingdom who have not taken the Oaths to the Government, are about to be Confiscated; And that of Rossana, belonging to the Prince Borghese, is already expos'd to Sale.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated December 2.

Naples, Nov. 8. General Count Thaur our new Viceroy, has confirm'd all those whom his Predecessor Count Martiniz had put into Offices and Employments. His Excellency has suppress'd the Tribunal appointed to take Cognizance of all Persons suspected of Disaffection to the present Government: And relying intirely on the Fidelity of the Neapolitans to King Charles, has caus'd the Palisades that were planted in the Avenues to the Palace to be taken away: But declar'd at the same time, that if any Insurrection should be attempted, he would punish severely all that should be concern'd in it. His Excellency has likewise order'd, that all Prisoners for a Debt under 30 Ducats, shall be set at Liberty, and not be molested by their Creditors. A Tartan that sail'd from hence for Barcelona, having on board a Coach of admirable Workmanship and 8 excellent Horses, for the King, has been forc'd to return hither, having suffer'd Damage by a Storm in the Height of Gaeta.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 22.

Rome, Oct. 15. The Negotiation that was set on foot for terminating the between Difference this Court and the Ambassador of Venice, is come to nothing. The Ambassador had receiv'd Order from the Republick, to accept what was at first offer'd him by a Person who came to him at Spoleto with a Credential Letter from Don Orazio Albani. But being inform'd, that the said Person had been disown'd, as having gone beyond his Powers, the Ambassador went from Assise to Venice.

From the Amst. and Leid. Gaz. dated Nov. 18.

Rome, Oct. 29. The Duke of Turis and several of his Officers are come hither from Genoa and keep incognito: Which makes it conjectur'd, that his Squadron of Gallies is in our Seas, and wait for some Men of War from Toulon, in order to go and succour Sicily. To prevent the Disorder that had like to have happen'd last Year at the Church of St. Charles al Corso belonging to the Lombards, by the Contest between the Parties of King Charles and King Philip about putting up the Picture of their several Sovereigns, on the Festival of that Saint which is the 4th of December, the Pope has declar'd himself Protector of that Church, and caus'd the Pictures of the Kings of Spain to be taken down, and those of the Popes, with his own in the Middle, to be put up in the said Church. The Pope is indispos'd of a Defluxion on his Lungs, which his chief Physician attributes to his great Application to Writing. On Tuesday his Holiness gave Audience to the Prince d'Elboeuf, who is come hither Post from Naples, designing to go over from Genoa to Barcelona to serve King, Charles III. There is no further likelihood of the Ambassador of Venice's returning hither, seeing the Domesticks he left here are gone with his Goods to embark at Ancona. The Canon Avolence is banish'd this City, because he exceeded his Orders when he was sent to Spoleto, to treat of an Accommodation with that Ambassador. The blessed Swadling-Cloaths which the Pope sends to the Duke of Britany and the Prince of Asturias, are put on Board a Genoese Felucca at Ripagande: And the Abbot Salviati, Brother of the Duke of that Name, who is appointed to present them, is set out for Genoa to embark there for Marseilles. The Ambassador of Muscovy is gone from hence to return to the Czar his Master in Poland; he appear'd very well satisfied with the Honours which the Pope order'd to be shewn him. The Estates and Revenues of Cardinal Colonna, are sequester'd by the 2 Crowns of France and Spain, because of his embracing the Party of King Charles: But the Imperialists proceed in the like manner against the French and Spanish Cardinals of the contrary Party.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, Nov. 25.

Rome, Nov. 5. Yesterday the Pope caus'd a Chappel to be held in the Church of St. Charles, and Care was taken by his Order that neither of the Parties of of the 2 contending Kings of Spain should be set up. The Imperialists made great Complaints of this: as having not only the Right on their side, but the Possession of the State of Milan, of which St. Charles al Corfo is the National Church. Count Martiniz arrived at Marino, a Place belonging to the Constable Colonna, whence he is expected in this City, where 'tis thought he will make some stay before he returns to Vienna.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated December 2.

Rome, Nov. 12. The 10th Count Martiniz arriv'd here from Marino, and to Day was splendidly entertain'd by the Constable Colonna, with Cardinal Grimani and several other Persons of Quality, and he will soon be going for Vienna. Cardinal Grimani is preparing likewise to go to Milan, to reside there in the Absence of Prince Eugene, who is to go to the Court of Vienna.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 18.

Venice, Nov. 4. The Chevalier Nani, who lately return'd from his Embassy at Rome, went yesterday to the Senate with a numerous Retinue, and made his Report of the whole Contest that had occasion'd his returning from that Court. There are Letters from Constantinople of the 2d of September last, which advise, that the Chief of the Arabs having revolted had been taken and beheaded. That the Grand Signior had augmented his Troops considerably; and that 'twas rumour'd his Design was to make War against the Czar of Muscovy next Summer, unless his Czarish Majesty does before that time cause some Forts, which he lately order'd to be built on the Frontier, to be demolish'd. On Advice that the Plague continues to rage in and about Cracow, our Magistrates of Health have interdicted all manner of Commerce with Poland, and dispatch'd Orders on that Subject to the Frontiers of this State.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 19.

Paris, Nov. 19. We have Advice from Constantinople of the 18th of September last, that Sultan Ibeg, Head of a Hord of Tartars, coming thither to ask Lands of the Grand Signior, was sent back to the Kan, who advis'd him to possess himself of the Territories about Aloff of which the Czar had made himself Master. He march'd thither with 100000 Horse, and the Muscovites meeting him with 40000 Men, he gave them Battle about the End of August, defeated them, kill'd 8000 of them, took 7000 Prisoners, and afterwards block'd up Aloff. The Divan at Constantinople had under Deliberation, whether to own or disown Ibeg.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 29.

Letters from Germany, advise, that an Ambassador from the Ottoman Court, came lately to King Stanislaus in Poland, to congratulate him on his Advancement to the Throne of that Kingdom; and declar'd to him, that the Porte would engage to make War against the Muscovites with a numerous Army, provided the Poles and Swedes would not during 3 Years make either Peace or Truce with the Czar. 'Tis not known what Answer was return'd to that Minister.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Letters from Constantinople of the 26th of September advise, that the Grand Signior had a Son born to him, for which great Rejoycings were made: That his Highness was amassing great Treasure, by Taxes on his Subjects and especially on Trade: That the Captain Bashaw, or Admiral of the Fleet, had laid heavy Imposts on the Inhabitants of the Islands of the Archipelago, and taken the Young Men by Force, for Soldiers or Seamen: That the Envoy of King Stanislaus was set out on his Return to Poland, with an Answer to the Propositions he had made to the Porte: And that the Tartars who had begun Hostilities on the Muscovites, continued to solicit the Grand Signior to joyn in the War with them: But that he had not yet declar'd his Resolution.

Milan, Nov. 18. The Clergy of this State, both secular and regular, are urgently press'd to furnish the Contributions charg'd on them for Exemption from Winter Quarters: And our Archbishop has set them an Example by paying his Contingent. 500000 Florins are provided, for defraying the Charge of the Journey and Voyage of the Royal Bride of King Charles from Vienna to Barcelona.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 25.

Genoa, Nov. 6. Five English Men of War that put in here from Leghorne, are sail'd for Barcelona: One of them has on board the Prince of Telesia, with another Neapolitan Nobleman of the Family of Carreti: These Men of War are to come back to Italy, to joyn the other Ships of their Nation. A Bark from Civita Vecchia has brought the News, that the Duke d'Uzeda, Ambassador of King Philip at Rome, has caus'd the Captain of the Commodore-Gally of the Duke of Turf's Squadron to be seiz'd, for not keeping in the Port of Gaeta with the 4 Gallies he had there, to carry off the Duke of Escalona and other Persons of Quality who were in that Place when it was taken.
